THE CASE OF HERBERT .- The Grand Jury, says the Washington Star of the 31 inst., found a bill against Mr. P. T. Horbert for the marder of Thos. Keating. Deputy Marshal Philips immediately confined. Wednesday last was the day fixed for the trial of this case. The secused was anxions to be tried on Monday last, but could not by that time get a witness from St. Louis to Washington, whose testimony he conceived important to himself. The family (widow) of Thomas Keating is making efforts to obtain assistant counsel to join the United States District Attorney. She has relatives in New York, through whom she hopes that Cearles O'Conner will be retained to repre-

the Democratic canse. It further says: But it is not to Cambridge alone that these re-freshing evidences of a healthful public senti-ment are confined; for, among other similar indi-cations in cities adjacent to ours, old patriotic Charlestown has spoken with power and effect.

The officer remonstrated; told him he had no anthority to make an arreal; that the affair was forgotten, and if he meant to make his remorse good for anything he had better set to work and carn the money he had criminally got and spent, and pay the Bank and those he had swindled? that would be better every way than going to the penitentiary. But Howard was resolute to be arrested. The officer wrote to this city, and a requisition was procured, upon which he was brought here on Thursday afternoon. We believe an indictment is ponding against him for the larceny. P. S.—We learn that Howard was sent to the penitentiary, on Saturday, for two wars.
